This is what Canada's great world's fair, Expo 67, offers you. Over 70 national pavilions, all free, with exciting architecture, displays, and national costumes to invite your camera. Plus colorful amusement areas, sports events, fireworks, water displays, theater and opera, picturesque restaurants—and a visit to lively, cosmopolitan Montreal!

Plan to go. Take plenty of film. And in the Expo 67 grounds, make your first stop the Ile Notre Dame station—pick up your free Kodak picture-taking map at the Kodak Pavilion nearby. It will guide you to the key spots for good pictures.
