THE INDIA PAVILION 1978

Performances of dance and music, both folk and classical will be held at the India Pavilion throughout the season of Man and His World. They will be presented six days a week, Tuesday to Sunday inclusive, at 3:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. It may be of interest to note that Maureen Sanderson, a Canadian dancer who has studied Indian classical dance for 11 years in India, will be performing in the India Pavilion from June 22 to July 20.

Apart from the regular dance and music performances in the India Pavilion, special shows will be arranged to celebrate the following occasions in the first two weeks of July:

1. July 1 - Canada Day
3:00 p.m. - Regional Costumes of India
6:00 p.m. - Classical Dances of India
2. July 2 - UNESCO Day
3:00 p.m. - Regional Costumes of India
6:00 p.m. - Classiscal Dances of India
