LE VILLAGE QUEBECOIS

La Ronde's Village Québécois is one of the most authentic of its type, and one of the most popular stops on the grounds.

The skilled hands of the artisans in their eleven craft shops delight visitors the whole season through. These craftsmen are proud of their work, and a visit to their shops will show why.

And even though it's still summer, the Village Québécois is a wonderful place to do your Christmas shopping. Allow yourself enough time to browse among the wide range of goods and to make your choice carefully.

There are hundreds, indeed thousands, of items to choose from: leather goods, wood carvings, paintings, the cutest dolls you've ever seen, engraved copper, enamels candles, weaving, macramé, ceramics, snowshoes. The list goes on and on.

You can even have your silhouette done on paper in a minute-and-a-half... a novel touch for your Christmas cards. But if Christmas still seems too far off, just buy a little something for yourself. Nowhere else will you find such fascinating artifacts for such a low price.
