

Press release

CABARETS SHOWS AND RESTAURANTS

THE SILVER GARTER SALOON

Behind Fort Edmonton's palisade just two steps beyond the entrance to La Ronce, the cabaret-restaurant Silver Garter Saloon offers a variety show to admirers of the Wild West.

Five dancers display their prowess in frenzied versions of the can-can, the Charleston, and a Western dance. This year, a novelty is the extra-special Star Wars Dance. All of it is presented to the great sound of the "Five Honky-Tonk Boys", a band of five musicians led by Louis Lefebvre.

Serving up more cowboys are amateur singers like the young Martine Lorraine.

Four shows are presented Mondays through Saturdays from 8:30 pm to closing. On Sundays, they start at 6 pm.

Amusing visitors from 2 to 8 pm are two clowns and a dancer.