

April 12 Benefit To Give Patrons View of the Fair

Manhattan Society for Mental Health to Gain From Dinner Dance

The Manhattan Society for Mental Health is one of the many organizations catering to the population's curiosity about the World's Fair. It will hold a benefit dinner dance at the Top of the Fair restaurant in Flushing Meadows, Queens, on April 12.

The restaurant affords an excellent view of the fair grounds, and patrons will be able to see how things are progressing toward the April 22 opening.

Mrs. Alan Northcote Sidnam, chairman for the dinner dance, has among her aides Mrs. Richard Moser, vice chairman; Mrs. Ashby McC. Sutherland, Mrs. Philip R. Warner, Mrs. Van Kaufman, Mrs. Irving Jacoby, Mrs. Robert W. Laidlaw, Mrs. Conant Brewer and Amy Vanderbilt.

Others are Mrs. Mortimer Hess Jr., Mrs. Robert A. Henderson, Mrs. Susan O'Connor, Mrs. Frederick L. Redpath, Mrs. Robert De Vecchi, Mrs. Robert D. L. Gardiner, Mrs. I. M. Pei, Mrs. Frederick E. Donaldson, Mrs. Theodore C. Levenson, Miss Millicent Martin and Mrs. Hugh Downs.

The Manhattan Society for Mental Health promotes interest in the prevention and treatment of mental illness.

Further information about the dinner dance may be obtained from Miss Margaret Eagan at the society's offices, 11 West 42d Street.

Clarence F. Korker

PLANNING BENEFIT: Left to right: Mrs. Ashby McC. Sutherland, Mrs. Alan Northcote Sidnam and Mrs. Philip R. Warner discuss April 12 dinner dance at the Top of the Fair restaurant. The Manhattan Society for Mental Health will benefit from the event.