PRODUCTION SHOWCASE

FREE PERFORMANCES in the FESTIVAL of ENTERTAINMENT

Over 27,000 performers, in some 750 companies, are gathering from all over America and Canada to display their unique and varied talents to World's Fairgoers WITHOUT CHARGE! At the International Amphitheatre, on Canada Island, inside the Folklife Festival grounds, and at numerous "performing corners" which dot the site, you can listen to, laugh with, dance around, and participate in entertainments ranging from rock to dixieland, country to jazz, and everything between. Expo '74 is a happy place!

OUR EARTH . . . OUR SEA . . . OUR SKY

A major art exhibition of masterworks and luminaries past and present

A spectacular collection of paintings dating from the late 18th century, selected by San Francisco art critic, Alfred Frankenstein. Here is the first general survey of American painting which includes Canada and Hawaii. Benton, Cole, Heade, Henri, Leutz and Whittredge are among the masters represented. Contemporary art by d'Arcangelo, Ellsworth Kelly, Roy Lichtenstein, James Rosenquist, Joseph Stella and many others. In addition, films run continuously depicting "earth works" and concepts of the avant-garde. Minimal change.

Czechoslovakia's DECISION CINEMA "KinoAutomat"

You are the director! You decide how the plot of the movie will develop. In this hilarious farce the film stops at each "decision point" in the script; then, the actor on stage (who is also the star of the film) asks you to vote how the plot should turn. The majority wins and the film starts again following the decision of the audience. You've never seen anything like it before. You have to see this to have really seen THE FAIR!

THE NORTHWEST: A GIFT OF THE EARTH

Produced by Expo '74 in association with the Smithsonian Institution

Enter a living part of the Northwest at Expo's Theme Presentation. In the spacious park you can pan for gold, help build a log cabin, watch a lumberjack competition, join in a salmon barbecue, or dance and sing at a Scandinavian festival. Of particular interest are the presentations by Northwest tribes of the area's great Indian heritage. This constantly changing program invites you to become a participant yourself in the pleasures and crafts of the Northwest. FREE with admission to Expo '74.

THE GREAT NORTHWEST MIDWAY

A Phantasmagoria of Stupendous Thrills, Mellifluous Merriment and Ubiquitous Hilarity, featuring an Incredible Array of Mechanized Pleasure Devices assembled at GREAT EXPENSE from the Capitals of Europe and all illuminated by a Fabulous Farandole of Glowing Globes. Ladies are invited!

The Ride Over the Fair

See the graceful panorama of the World's Fair grounds from a traveling seat in the sky. Both arms of the river, the two islands, and the North and South banks spread out beneath you to create a visual memory you will always cherish.

The Ride Over the Falls

A dramatic plunge beneath the arches of the Monroe Bridge carries you over a series of boiling cataracts in a thrilling ride. The spray from the turbulent whitewater of the rushing Spokane River almost touches your feet as your gondola swings free in this unique experience.
