

Fair Calendar

June 27, 1964

MASSACHUSETTS DAY

- 9 A.M.—Gates open.
- 9:30 A.M.—Concert by University of Massachusetts Band. Repeat at 4 P.M. New England States Exhibit.
- 10 A.M.—Union Congregational Church of Richmond Hill will be the host church in the Protestant and Orthodox Center.
- 10:30 A.M.—Massachusetts Day ceremonies. Governor Endicott Peabody will attend. New England States Exhibit.
- 11 A.M.—Start of entertainment in New York State Pavilion's Tent of Tomorrow, continuing through the day. Hungarian-New York Day.
- 11 A.M.—Twin-twirler tournament. Yo-Yo championships for children. Singer Bowl.
- 11:15 A.M.—Coast Guard Academy band and drill team, U. S. Pavilion.
- 11:30 A.M.—"They Nobly Dar'd," a musical dramatization about the American Revolution. United States Pavilion. Repeated at 5:30 and 8 P.M. at the New England States Exhibit.
- 11:30 A.M.—Hawthorne Day observances. Followed by Oakland Day observances. New Jersey Pavilion.
- Noon—Joe Walton will be sports host at the Schaefer Center. Repeat at 5 P.M.
- 1:30 P.M.—Massachusetts Day program at Oregon Timber Carnival, to 5:30 P.M.
- 1:45 P.M.—Re-enactment of Boston Tea Party. World's Fair Marina.
- 2:30 P.M.—Sexton High School Band from Lansing, Mich. Tiparillo Band Pavilion.
- 3:30 P.M.—Union Congregational Church Choir. Protestant and Orthodox Center.
- 4 P.M.—Krakowiak Polish dancers of Boston. United States Pavilion. Repeat at 7:30 at New England States Exhibit.
- 4 P.M.—Clay Cole Revue with Lesley Gore. Repeat at 9 and 11 P.M. Danceland, Bourbon Street Pavilion.
- 4:45 P.M.—Old time hymn sing. Court of Christian Pioneers. Protestant and Orthodox Center.
- 5:30 P.M.—Fort Pierce High School Band. Florida Pavilion.
- 7 P.M.—Gene Krupa. Jazzland, Bourbon Street Pavilion.
- 7:30 P.M.—"Bon Odori" Japanese dance program. Tiparillo Pavilion.
- 9 P.M.—Fireworks and fountain display. "Patriotic Show" Pool of Industry.
- 9:30 P.M.—Guy Lombardo plays for free dancing. Tiparillo Band Pavilion.
- 10 P.M.—Exhibits close. Amusement area remains open until 2 A.M.
- 2 A.M.—Gates close.
- criticisms that have been leveled at the fair.
- The fair spokesman said the