

Lounge Trains Readied at New York World's Fair

The estimated 70 million visitors to the New York World's Fair will ride these trains between the parking area and main admission gate and throughout the fairground for sightseeing and 'step-on-and-off' service. Speed is eight m.p.h. Clark Equipment Co. is making them for Greyhound Co. In the background is the New York Port Authority fair building.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.