

Fear for Pope's Safety to Curtail Fair Visit

BY FRED FERRETTI

Exclusive to The Times from the New York Herald Tribune

NEW YORK — Fears for Entegart, of the Brooklyn di-Pope Paul VI's safety and ocese.

health have forced a drastic His visit will be limited to curtailment of his World's the Vatican Pavillion's inter-Fair visit, it was learned or, where he will view the Sunday. Pieta and give a blessing in

The Pope will not, as had the Chapel of the Good Shepbeen planned, visit the Unit- herd which will be televised ed States Pavillon, tour the nationwide.

fairgrounds in a motorcade He will not come into the or give a papal blessing from fair through the customary the balcony of the Vatican VIP gate in a motorcade. In-Pavilion. stead, he will be brought into the fairgrounds through a

Also dropped were plans "crash gate" directly behind for the Pope to motor the Belgian Village and Vati-through the grounds to view can Pavillon. Under heavy the evening fireworks, and escort, he will go the very to be publicly greeted by few steps into the pavillon.

Robert Moses, fair president, The Pope will leave the and Archbishop Bryan Mc- same way, go directly to the airport and leave for Rome.