SPECIAL DISCOUNT TICKETS TO SPECTACULAR
"AROUND THE WORLD IN 80 DAYS" SHOW

Tickets which give a 20% discount to all employees at "It's A Small World" are available free of charge in our Guest Relations office (ask Chuck). The spectacular outdoor presentation in the Jones Beach Marine Theatre stars David Atkinson, Robert Clary and Jan McArt, along with a gigantic cast of singers, dancers, elephants, ships, specialty acts and numerous special effects. This is probably the most elaborate show ever to grace the mammoth stage and this is the last opportunity to see it. It will not be shown again after September 5th. An all new show will take its place next season. Those of you who are not acquainted with the type of shows presented at the Jones Beach Marine Theatre have only to ask any New Yorker about them. This is something you won't want to miss. After picking up your discount ticket here at the office, take it to the Box Office in front of the Singer Bowl. The discount tickets are good for all performances except Saturdays and they are for any number of people. A $5 reserved only costs you $4. $4.00 seats are yours for $3.20. Here is a show you'll never forget.

AMATEUR CONTEST POSTPONED UNTIL SEPT.

Due to numerous complications, the talent contest at the Florida Pavilion has been postponed until sometime in September. As soon as plans are firm, we will be notified.

BELGIAN VILLAGE OPENS - USE I.D. CARD

Your I.D. card admits you free of charge to the recently opened Belgian Village.

SPECIAL ENTRY OFFERED TO ALL EMPLOYEES
~~OF~~ "IT'S A SMALL WORLD" PRESENTATION

Many "Small Worlders" have expressed a desire to see "To Be Alive", the wonderful motion picture now showing to standing room only at the Johnson's Wax Golden Rondelle. For this reason, the pavilion managers have established some early morning shows each Monday, Wednesday and Friday, starting today. You must show your I.D. card to a Hostess at the Home Care Information Center between 9:15 and 9:25 a.m. After 9:25, they will fill the auditorium with the general public and will begin their first show promptly at 9:30 a.m. Your cooperation is requested in impressing upon yourselves the fact that they will not admit employees after 9:25 a.m. The extra shows will continue for the balance of the season, or until further notice. Employees will not be given preferential entrance other than at the above mentioned times. This motion picture is truly one of the greatest attractions at the World's Fair. SEE IT!

LOOKING FOR A MARVELOUS FLOOR SHOW?

If you want to see a spectacular floor show, we suggest you hurry over to the House of Japan Theatre Restaurant, where a troupe of about 20 entertainers present an outstanding revue every evening at 5:30, 7:30 and 9:15 p.m. The 50-minute show is included in the price of your dinner. Meals start at $3.50 and include soup, salad, entree, dessert and beverage. Put this on your "must see" list before the season comes to a close. The elaborate presentation at the Indonesian Theatre Restaurant is another one. The costuming alone is worth the price of the meal. Prices start at $6.

RECENT VISITORS THROUGH OUR LOUNGE

Among the most recent visitors through our Pepsi-Cola Lounge were Jinx Falkenberg, General McIntyre, Gregg Schumacher (All American Soap-Box Derby Winner), Ella Dee Kessell (Miss West Virginia), Anita Louise, Dianne Coutright (Miss Ohio), Helen Hayes, Marty Allen, Lillian Gish, and Dr. Martin Luther King.

ALAN FOWLER IS NOW "UNCLE ALAN"

Alan Fowler, one of the Attraction Lead Men, is bursting with pride over the birth of James Andrew, his nephew, on Sunday, August 8th. CONGRATULATIONS!

HOSPITALITY HEADQUARTERS NEWS

The New York World's Fair Hospitality Headquarters is now open seven days each week, from 10:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. It is located on the top floor of the Better Living Building - just push the elevator button marked "PH". (Be sure to take along your I.D. card, just in case a Security Officer stops you.) The Headquarters staff is headed by Mrs. Mary Jane McCaffree, who served as White House Secretary and Personal Secretary to Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower when her husband was serving two terms as President. The Headquarters is a wonderful place to meet new friends. Among the many special events planned are weekly Thursday night parties (10:00 p.m. to 12:30 a.m.). They have also arranged for Fair employees to get a $1.00 discount on several of the Greyline sightseeing tours. By showing your I.D. card at the Greyline office, 460 West 42nd St., you can get the following tours for these prices: Tour #1- $3.50 2-hour tour of Lower Manhattan and Chinatown; Tour #2- $3.50 2-hour tour of Upper Manhattan and Harlem; Tour #3- $5.50 4-hour tour (combination of Tours #1 and #2); Tour #4- $5.50 4-hour boat trip to Statue of Liberty and Lower Manhattan; and Tour #5

(Greyline Tours, Con't) $10.00 all-day tour of New York and Statue of Liberty. Illustrated brochures are available in the Headquarters office.

MISCELLANEOUS GOODIES FROM THE FILES

Last week's "Cleanest Patio" awards go to Pepsi Patio #2 - Day Shift and Pepsi Patio #1- Night Shift.....Have you noticed the new posters which line the exit walkway? They were designed by Mary Blair and made at the Studio..... Bob Russo wins the "Haircut of the Week" award as well as the "Scooter Driver Safety Award".....Wedding bells were ringing on August 13th for Pepsi Patio Hostess Marta Groszman and Rafael Mishan. We wish them a world of happiness!!.....Were you there when Drayton rescued the bird from the rafters inside the attraction?.....Mr. Moses was recently quoted as saying that "it will be a totally different Fair next year, - well worth coming back to see, again. Next year there will be some new exhibits and additions to present ones." A spokesman indicated that these revisions could include the participation next year of nations not now officially represented. This, many believe, confirms speculation that the Russians, France and Great Britain may decide to open exhibits in 1965.....Now that the remainder of the Texas Pavilion has closed its doors, the "Small World" is beginning to take on that Texas accent. We welcome all our new Hosts and Hostesses from the Lone Star State.....Watch the "Today" show on Friday, August 21. You'll see an interview with our Res. Mgr. Pete Crimmings and many shots of the interior of the show.....Please use those hanger racks. The floors are getting messy just as soon as the night shift arrives.....Opening in Sept. at the Radio City Music Hall is "Mary Poppins". Advance reports call it "Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious" (that means "Practically perfect in every way" by jiminy!)
