

what's free at the FAiR

Fun at the New York State Pavilion

The "Pieta" at the Vatican pavilion

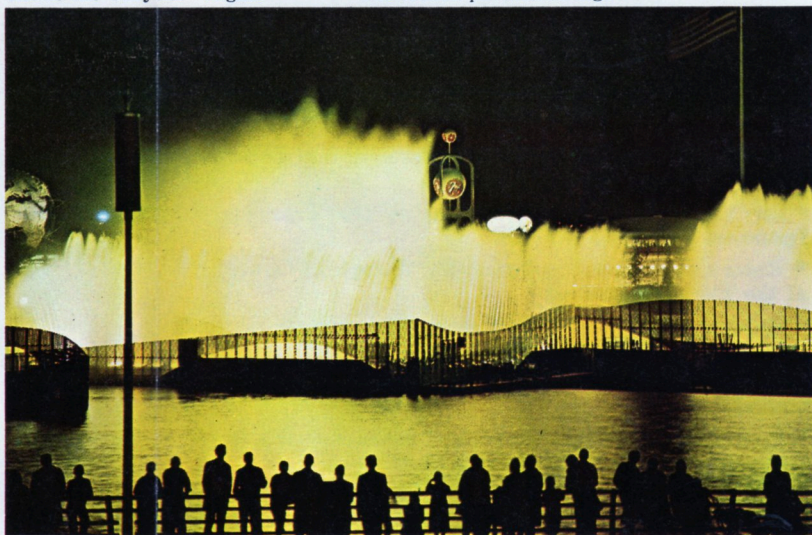

Inside the Chrysler "engine"

The Kodak pavilion at night

The Promenade fountains

Colorful fountains and fireworks every night at 9

85% of the Fair is entirely free!

Your ticket of admission to the New York World's Fair is truly a ticket to a wonderland of free fun, entertainment and excitement. This booklet isn't nearly large enough to list all the exhibits and attractions awaiting you, but here is a sample of some of the free fun to expect when you come to the Fair!

- A thrilling exhibition of water-skiing and motor boating in the huge Florida Amphitheatre.
- The award-winning film "To Be Alive!" at the Johnson Wax pavilion. Free shoe shine, too!
- Ride along the Ford "Magic Skyway" in a convertible and watch Disney "cave men"
- The thrilling "Flying Eagles of Papantla" performing 125 feet in the air at the Mexico pavilion

- Inspect rockets and space capsules at the United States Space Park
- Marvel at a magic show at the General Cigar pavilion
- Ride on the "People Wall" to see an exciting film show at the IBM pavilion
- Prehistoric monsters at Sinclair's Dinoland
- Walk through Coca-Cola's exhibit and you'll imagine you're walking around the world
- The world's brightest searchlight—The Tower of Light.
- The educational "Atomsville, U.S.A." exhibit for children only in the Hall of Science
- A moving chair trip through the world of communications at the Bell System pavilion
- Hear famous Irish poetry at the Ireland pavilion
- Watch drum dancing at the Korean pavilion

Unisphere presented by  United States Steel © 1961, New York World's Fair 1964-1965 Corporation

- Test driving skills at the Socony-Mobil exhibit
- Take a trip through the past and present on General Electric's carousel theatre
- See the epic of man's survival at the Travelers Insurance Company pavilion
- Enter a magnificent replica of the "Temple of Dawn" at the Thailand pavilion
- Enjoy DuPont's 60-minute show featuring modern chemical miracles performed before your eyes
- A Cinerama film ride through American history at the United States pavilion
- Concerts, star-studded shows and athletic events are frequently featured at the Singer Bowl
- Visit a working color television studio and control room at the RCA pavilion
- See a million-dollar money tree at the American Express pavilion
- Visit the wild west at the Montana pavilion
- Explore an unusual zoo and see The Candy Factory at Chunky Square
- Learn about the Arctic inside an igloo at the Alaska pavilion
- See the "Time Capsule" at the Westinghouse exhibit
- Discover new worlds of art, culture, entertainment and people in pavilions from countries all around the world: Sweden, Japan, India, the Republic of China, Austria, Indonesia, Greece, Denmark, Pakistan, Venezuela, all the African pavilions and many, many more.

All this—and more—and it's all free! You and your family will spend days at the Fair and never run out of exciting things to do and see.

NEW YORK WORLD'S FAIR—1965